

History of the Met Junior Championship

Sponsored by MetLife

The nation's oldest junior championship was founded in 1912 by Leighton Calkins, a former member of the MGA and USGA Executive Committees. Over the ensuing years, the Met Junior has produced a number of winners who have gone on to outstanding achievements on both the regional and national levels.

Frank Strafaci, who won the Met Junior at Apawamis in 1935, later became the only seven-time champion of the Met Amateur. In 1961, Claude Harmon Jr., better known today as Butch, captured the title at Inwood. Seven years later, his younger brother Bill won the Junior at Morris County Golf Club. Both brothers followed in their legendary father's footsteps and became internationally recognized golf instructors. Other well-known Met Area instructors who are former Met Junior champions include Tom Patri Jr. (1976) and Mike Lopuszynski (1982).

More recently, 1994 Junior champion Marc Turnesa won a tournament in his rookie season on the PGA Tour in 2008, and 1997 Junior champion Andrew Svoboda, who captured the 2003 Met Open while still an amateur, plays on the PGA Tour. In 2003, Mike Quagliano, of GlenArbor, came within a whisker of winning the Met Amateur two weeks after winning the Junior, losing in the finals on the 37th hole. In 2009, David Pastore captured his second Met Junior title, a feat that only few have accomplished in the event's storied history.

The Junior champion is awarded the esteemed Mandeville Trophy, and it is one of the toughest MGA trophies to win. In 2014, the MGA introduced a format change to the Met Junior. Sectional qualifying will take place throughout the Met Area to narrow down the entrant pool of around 300 juniors to around 70. Qualifiers then play 36 holes of on-site qualifying to determine the 16 players who advance to match play.

The winner must survive through qualifying and match play to add his name to Met Junior records.

Andrew Svoboda, who won the Met Junior in 1997, the Met Open in 2003, and the Met Amateur in 2004 now is a member of the PGA TOUR.

Eligibility

The Met Junior Championship is open to male amateur golfers who have not started attending college, are not yet 19 by July 29, 2015, and must be members of an MGA Member Club. A person who does not reside in the MGA territory and who is not a full-time student or employed in the MGA territory, cannot join an MGA Member Club for the purpose of entering an MGA event. Male golfers under the age of 16 may compete in both the MGA/MetLife Boys and Met Junior Championships.

Note: Players advancing to the round of 16 in the 2015 Met Junior Championship will receive an invitation to the Carter Cup, the MGA's junior stroke play championship, at Baltusrol Golf Club on July 29, 2015.

Format of Play

18-hole sectional qualifying. Qualifiers then play 36 holes of on-site qualifying to determine the 16 players that advance to match play.

One of the area's best players, Cameron Young, won the Met Junior in 2013.

About Paramount Country Club

Paramount Country Club is located on the old Mountain View Farm of Adolf Zukor. Founder of Paramount Pictures, Zukor purchased 300 acres in New City in 1918, three or four miles from the Hudson River behind High Tor, in the foothills of the Ramapo's, as a retreat from Manhattan. He then commissioned A.W. Tillinghast, well-known for his financial support of (often ill-fated) Broadway productions, to design an 18-hole golf course on the property. The course, called Mountain View, was ready for play in 1920.

Zukor built a night house, guest house, locker houses, green houses, staff quarters, garages, and a movie theater on the property, and is said to have invited neighbors over for movie previews, with the movie's stars joining them in the audience.

With the movie industry declining, Zukor created a private club on the property in 1936, then sold it to what would become Dellwood in 1948. The name was changed to Paramount in 2011, after which the golf course was given an award-winning renovation.

The members today enjoy twelve tennis courts and the original olympic-sized swimming pool, which is overlooked by the original stadium court and flanked by a formal garden complete with a fountain.

This is the first MGA Championship that Paramount is hosting.

97th Met Junior Championship

Sponsored by MetLife

Rockaway River Country Club, Millstone, N.J.

Tuesday-Thursday, July 15-17

Although players were met with damp conditions and a severe weather delay, they forged on in the intense stroke play, where Matt Lowe and Christopher Gabriele finished at the top of the leaderboard with impressive scores of 5-under 71. The competition whittled down to Dawson Jones of Howell, NJ and John VanDerLaan of Southbury, Connecticut. The final round seemed as if it would be a wash-out in Jones' favor when he held a 3-up advantage over VanDerLaan after the front 9. However, VanDerLaan fought back and forced the match to all square after the 13th hole. Dawson made a clutch birdie putt on the 17th to give himself a 1-up lead into the 18th.
